

SMALL ANIMAL VETERINARIAN – Part Time

About us

The Animal Welfare League of Queensland Inc. (AWLQ) is a Not for Profit that operates one of the largest Rehoming Organisations in Australia. We are a leader in the welfare industry with the “Getting to Zero” initiative and care for over 14,000 animals each year, with over 180 employees across 5 sites, including 4 Rehoming Centres and 2 Community Vet Clinics in South East Queensland.

Our Community Vet Clinics offer a full range of veterinary services to the public and we have a dedicated team of professionals that have their community and pets at the fore.

Our clinics promise to never turn away an animal that is sick or suffering, irrespective of an owner’s capacity to pay for treatment. We provide financial support to clients for emergency and urgent treatments and we don’t means test, meaning all members of the community can access our services. By providing individual support for each of our clients we are able to avoid euthanasia or surrender and keep families and their pets together!

The role

AWLQ currently have a vacancy at our Gold Coast Community Veterinary Clinic, this is a busy small animal practice providing a full range of veterinary services to the public, with a focus on supporting wider AWLQ goals for animal welfare and desexing.

You could expect to see a varied caseload which provides an excellent learning environment for the right person. Our workplace is challenging and rewarding and you would be supported by a great team of dedicated and positive professional staff. We are open 6 days per week and have a 7 day roster to cover any inpatients over the weekend.

The Vet

We are looking for a small animal veterinarian to provide quality care to our patients and their owners! Our ideal candidate has a passion for animal welfare and will be enthusiastic to tackle challenging cases in a busy work environment.
