

Animal Welfare
League Qld
Est. 1959

COMMUNITY VET CLINIC

Veterinarian Brisbane Community Vet Clinic

Looking to take the next step in your veterinary career?

Want to be part of something big and make difference?

An exciting opportunity exists for a veterinarian to join our Brisbane Community Vet Clinic team!

We are committed to keeping pets and people together. The Brisbane Community Vet Clinic's charter is that no sick or suffering animal is ever turned away, irrespective of an owner's capacity to pay for treatment. This ensures that people never need to face a decision to unnecessarily euthanise or surrender their much-loved companions.

We all share a common passion at the Brisbane Community Vet Clinic. Whether affected by illness or injury, the animals and their families we help, need your compassion. You will wake up every day knowing you'll be helping to keep pets and people together in a fulfilling environment where no two days are the same!

Your career opportunities

Do you see yourself practising veterinary medicine in a state-of-the-art veterinary hospital, under the banner of one of the most respected brands in animal welfare? Are you looking for passionate colleagues and mentors who will collaborate on cases?

Our unique clinic brings with it a unique caseload. Expect to regularly see a high amount of emergency surgeries such as pyometra, exploratory laparotomy and more! Our veterinary team are perfectly positioned to utilise our varied caseload to fast track their surgical and skills.

Key Responsibilities:

- Conduct activities to a standard of the Veterinary Surgeons Board of QLD and AWLQ policy.
- Desex small animals.
- Assess, diagnose and treat sick/injured animals by prescribing appropriate treatment.
- Carry out routine examinations and diagnoses.
- Prescribe and administer medications and anaesthesia.
- Carry out routine surgical procedures and perform radiographic procedures.
- Perform pathological testing in accordance with infection control protocols.
- Perform euthanasia and surgical autopsy as required.
- Perform emergency procedures and operations.

- Communicate accurate and professional veterinary advice to clients.
- Meet animal health regulatory and legislative requirements.
- Provide owners with preventative health care information.
- Communicate diagnosis and treatment plans.
- Generate estimates for the cost of treatment.
- Remain up to date with developments in the veterinary medicine profession and keep informed on all governing regulations e.g. Veterinary Surgeons Board QLD, Australian Veterinary Association, and Queensland Health.
- Maintain comprehensive clinical records.
- Comply with WH&S duties and maintain clinic hygiene in accordance with clinic policies and procedures.

To be eligible to apply for this role, you must address the following selection criteria:

- Degree in Veterinary Science and Registration with the Queensland Veterinary Surgeons Board.
- Radiation Use License.
- Authorised Implanter Number (AIN).
- Demonstrate a minimum of 2 years experience in a clinical setting.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills, with internal and external stakeholders.
- Ability to analyse issues from different viewpoints, identify hidden problems and implement solutions.
- Strong Time Management/organisational skills.
- Versatility - Able to modify one's own behavioural style to respond to the needs of others while maintaining one's own objectives.
- Strong attention to detail, and seeks to provide quality veterinary care at all times.
- Discerns presenting symptoms and signs of a patient to formulate an accurate diagnosis.

What are the benefits we can offer you?

Join the Brisbane Community Vet Clinic and in addition to an amazing work-life balance, you will enjoy plenty of perks, including a very generous salary package, and:

- $2500 continuing education allowance to support your professional development
- 4 weeks of annual leave and 1-week paid study leave
- 4 weeks at full pay parental leave.

PLUS

- No on-call rosters.
- Free access to EAP and professional HR support.
- Relocation support for overseas veterinarians on a sponsored visa.
- Generous veterinary treatment discounts.
- Flexible working arrangements to suit lifestyle and family commitments.

Most importantly, every day you'll play an instrumental role in our lifesaving work.

Equity

Diversity and inclusion are the principles guiding how we build our teams, cultivate our leaders and build a culture of belonging where differences are valued.

Join us and make a difference!

Are you looking for a rewarding career? We value our people and the skills, experience, passion, and engagement they bring to the Brisbane Community Vet Clinic. If you're passionate about making a direct impact on animal welfare, we'd love to talk to you.

For more information please contact our HR Manager in confidence on 07 5509 9049 or if you're ready to apply, email your application to hr@awlqld.com.au and we'll be in touch.

AWLQ would like to thank all applicants for applying. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.