

Animal Welfare
League Qld
Est. 1959

Animal Care Attendant
Part Time - AWLQ Gold Coast Animal Rehoming Centre Clinic

Join us and make a difference!

Are you looking for a rewarding career? Animal Welfare League Queensland (AWLQ) is currently looking for a Part time Animal Attendant to join our Gold Coast Animal Rehoming Centre! If you're passionate about making a direct impact on animal welfare, we'd love to talk to you.

How you'll impact our mission

At AWLQ, we're committed to creating a brighter future for animals in need and keeping pets and people together by providing lifesaving support and resources to people in need with companion animals.

About the role

AWLQ Animal Attendants play a huge part in ensuring the welfare of our animals in our Rehoming Vet Clinic. The role will include but not limited to the following

- Providing a high standard of animal care
- Assisting Vet Nurses with patient care and surgery recovery plans
- Maintaining patient records and data entry
- Maintaining and cleaning of animal housing, veterinary treatment and surgery areas
- Cleaning and sterilisation of clinic and surgery equipment
- Knowledge and demonstrated ability with quarantine and disease management

What are the minimum requirements for this position?

- Certificate III in Animal studies or Veterinary Nursing
- Knowledge and demonstrated experience with animal handling in Dogs and Cats in a professional environment
- 2 years minimum experience previous in animal industry
- Shelter Buddy System experience (Highly Desired)

To be successful in this role, you will have:

- Exposure to working with dogs and cats.
- Confident dog handling abilities
- Computer literacy
- Excellent Customer Service
- Local area knowledge
- Be able to work a 7 day roster – which covers weekends and public holidays
- Hours are expected to average 25 hours per week.

Who are we?

Founded in 1959, AWLQ has become a trusted leader in animal welfare. We provide a safe haven and second chance for close to 10,000 stray and homeless animals every year. To each one of these animals we welcome through our doors, a promise is made – to never euthanise a healthy, sociable, or treatable animal in our care. We work tirelessly every day to maintain this promise.

In addition to our shelter work, we are committed to keeping pets and people together by providing lifesaving support and resources to people in need with companion animals. We are known for our grassroots and innovative community-based animal welfare work including our community vet clinics, Getting to Zero, Golden Hearts Seniors' Support Program and the National Desexing Network.

Why should you join us?

At AWLQ we offer competitive pay and benefits, including access to an independent Employee Assistance Program, retail discounts, vet discounts. Most importantly, every day you'll play an instrumental role in our lifesaving work. Our mission is to unleash the potential in every team, and we know that teams perform best when they have passion. We are committed to building a culture where everyone has the opportunity to do meaningful work and is recognised for their efforts.

Equity

Diversity and inclusion are the principles guiding how we build our teams, cultivate our leaders and build a culture of belonging where differences are valued.

Join us and make a difference!

Are you looking for a rewarding career? We value our people and the skills, experience, passion, and engagement they bring to the Gold Coast Rehoming Centre Clinic. If you're passionate about making a direct impact on animal welfare, we'd love to talk to you.

For more information please contact our HR Manager in confidence on 07 5509 9049 or if you're ready to apply, email your application to hr@awlqld.com.au or apply on Seek

AWLQ would like to thank all applicants for applying. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.